

The Wayne RESA Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) Classroom Programs

Allen Park Schools operates two Wayne Regional Educational Services Agency funded Autism Spectrum Disorder programs, one at Lindemann Elementary and one at Allen Park Middle School.

These programs support and serve students with autism spectrum disorder who live in the downriver area. These programs typically serve students with autism spectrum disorder whose academic, social, and communication needs are in the mild to moderately impaired ranges.