

Foundation Grant

In Michigan, public school districts receive a sum of money from the State called a foundation grant (or state aid). The amount of the aid is different for each school district. The foundation grant for the Allen Park Public Schools is $7,645 per student.