

As you are all probably aware, the school district's budget was defeated on April 20. The fate of the budget will now rest with our Town Council. The Board will be scheduling a meeting with them within the next several weeks to discuss this matter. Town Council will have until the 19th of May to render its final decision.